PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1892.

PRICE ONE CENT.

RANCOCAS.

First Under the Wire for the $500 Purse at Guttenburg.

EUG. LEIGH SELLS BREVIER

Azrael Wins in a Gallop-Xenophon Defeats Narbonne.

IPPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I GUTTENBURG RACE TRACE, Feb. 4. - The track at Guttenburg was much better than any one expected it to be. The cold weather last night disposed of a great deal of the moisture and the cloudy sky did not give the sun a chance to thaw it out. The result was that the track was fairly dry.

The programme was a splengid one, the fourth race in particular having a good class of sprinters entered.

The weather was pleasant, but a triffe too cold for blazers and linen dusters. The at-tendance was quite large and betting brisk. Jockey Ed Garrison was at the track to-day looking chipper and smiling.

The four-year-old colt Appointation, who was ill of lung fever, died this morning. The first race brought a fair field to the st, with the usual number of good things. Jay F. Dee opened favorite, but the talent would have none of blin, and plunged upon lvanhoe, with the result that the Westerner was quickly installed favorite. Lost Star was played for a good thing, and Marty B. also had considerable backing. Ivanhoe won easily from Marty B. Jay F. Dee ran well for half a mile, then swerved badly and finished third.

Eugene Leigh has sold the four-year-old colt, Brevier, by Jits Johnson, out of Frenchy Shy, to Frank B. Ray, for a price not mentiened.

The Narbonne colt was a 3 to 5 shot in the second race and considerable money was bet on him. Fabian was second choice and Grantite third choice. The latter was said to e a real good thing.

The race went to an outsider, Xenophon, he won easily from the favorite. Grante nished third.

Entshed third.

Mr. Carr was applauded for the excellent start he gave in this race.

The third event went to the favorite, Azrael, he winning very easily. The finish for the place was a hot one, Prodigal, a d to 1 chance, just beating Hob Arthur, also at 6 to 1, for the place.

Kyrie B. was backed down from 6 to 1 to 3 to 1, but ran as though short of wind.

FIRST RACE. Purse $400; for beaten horses; selling;

(gh). Jorkeys 104 frying 109 T Fipna 115 G Lyach 104 Dwyer J Cook 1-6 W Rehead 104 W Penny Algebra gelding Anomaly, 16.1 W. Ponny, 6 4 7 Lost Star. 198. Surveyer, 4 8 8 Hetting Evaches, 1 to 10 and 2 to 5, day F. Dec. 11 to 5 and 3 to 5, Lost Star, 8 and 5 to 2; Mary H., 8 and 5 to 2; A somaly, 12 and 4; A hoto-ever, 25 and 5; Quibbler, 3) and 8; Algebra gold-ing, 40 and 15, ing, 40 and 15,

Asy F. Dee rushed to the front in the first furlong, but was collared on the turn by Ivanhoe and the pair ran tecked into the stretch.
Ivanhoe then diew away and won handly by two lengths Marty B, was second, three lengths in troot of Lay F. Dee, who swerved badly in the final furlong. Time—1.0044.
Mutuels paid: Straight, 44.00; place,
$3.30. Marty B, paid $7.90.

SLCOPD MACE. Purse $400 ; penalties and allowances; one Narbonne coil rushed to the front at the art and, opening up a ga of three lorgins. I to the far ture, where Nenophon closed him.

The latter passed Narisonne colt casily ten they straightened out and won in a ster by two longths. Narisonne colt was vasine distance in front o. Grante. Time 538.

Mutuets paid: Straight, $15.95; place, $5.30. Narbonne coit paid $2.75.

THIND RACE. Purso $400; for beaten horses; selling; six Agraci rushed and the lead in the first fur-long and was never inter headed, who may in a get of by three lengths fr in Fredigh, who best leb Arthu a pass. Thus-1,2246.

Purse $500; persitics and allowances; ave urlongs.

Rancock B. Ponny 3 1 1
Essentite B. Ponny 3 1 1
Essentite B. Ponny 1 1 2 2
Basil Duk 11 1 Fryn 2 1 5
Gold Digger B. Barrett 1 1 2
Guide Digger B. Barrett 1 1 4
Guide B. Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting B. Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting Barrett B. Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting Barrett B. Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting Barrett B. Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Berting Barrett 1 1 5
Guide B. Barrett 1 1 1 5
Guide B. Barrett 1 1 LOCAL SPORTING DATES. In front of Ball Poice. Time-1.00.

Mutuers part straight, $4.85; place, $2.70. Figurette paid $2.05.

FIFTH HACE. Purse $400; scring; one mile and a fur-leaders to the half, with Sir George II. close behind.

The latter then went to the front and won easily by three lengths from La Grippe, who was six lengths in front of Eleve. Time—2.07.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $5.55; place, $2.80. La Grippe, paid $2.45.

SIXTH RACE.

Racing at Gloucester. ed here to-day with the following results : Here to-day with the following results.

First Race—Six and a half furiongs.—Wanderer won, Blue Grass second and Edgar Johnson third. Time—1.27%.

Second Race—Three-quarters of a mile.—

Kingdom won, Jersey second and Selab third.

Time—1.20.
Third Race—One mile.—Brown Charlie won,
Eblis second and Corticelli third. Time— Fourth Race-Seven-eighths of a mile.-Time—1.41.
Fifth Race—Pive-eighths of a mile.—Pen-zance won, Censor second and Pligrim third.
Time—1.0734.

FOUGHT ON A CITY DUMP.

Two Dirt-Cart Drivers Stabbed by Scow-Trimming Italians.

Details of a stabbing affray between Italian and Irish laborers in the Department of street Cleaning were revealed to-day in the Yorkville Court when Valentio Machoti, of 34 MAX GOMBOSSY. Mulberry street, and Joseph Dominico, of Goerck street, were arraigned for feloniously assaulting Patrick Pollard, of 400 East Thirty-fourth street, and Patrick Duffy, of 335 East Thirty-ninth street.

The fracas occurred yesterday afternoon at the Seventeenth street dump. The Italians are trimmers of refuse on scows. Pollard and Duffy are drivers in the Department. The dispute grew out of the possession of a barrel, and when the drivers attempted to take it away from the Italians the latter drew knives and stabbed the drivers.

Pollard and Duffy were taken to Bellevue for treatment. They identified Machott and Domnito as their assailants. assaulting Patrick Pollard, of 400 East Thirty-

S. V. WHITE AGAIN ON 'CHANGE.

The Deacon and Partner Hopkins

Readmitted to Membership. S. V. White and Frank W. Hopkins, of the old firm of S. V. White & Co., were readmitted to membership in the Stock Exchange to-day. They received a hearty welcome from their friends when they made their appear ance in the Board this afternoon.

Mr. White has written a personal letter to each of his creditors, in which he expresses his gratitude for their almost "unparalleled iorbearance," and says that if fortune favors him he hopes to soon make good all his in-dentedness, from which they have so gener-ously released him.

Burglar Caught Under Fire.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 4.—Monday ening liert stump entered the house of his employer. Gus Hutts, near Crawfordsville, employer. Gus Hutts, near Crawfordsvine, and beating Hutts into insembility with a club selzed the money in the house and, locking Mrs. Hutts in a closet, fled. A crowd started in search, and he was surrounded near Jackville yesterday. He opened fire upon his pursuers, and about thirty shots were exchanged. One of the posse put two balls in Stump's body. He was then overpowered and placed in jail.

Held on a Charge of Murder. to-day upon a warrant issued by Justice Caspar, charging him with the murder of Adam par, charging him with the murder of Adam upon similar lines.

It is almost incredible that an attempt should be made to give Parley's Hotel any other than its true character.

It was shut up by its proprietor as soon as He said schmidt had assaulted him. He was removed to St. Francis Hospital, where he Burglars at Tranby Croft-Scared Off by Servants.

[SPECIAL CALLT.]
LONDON, Feb. 4.—Burglars attempted last night to enter the house at Tranby Croft, the home of Arthur Wilson, of baccarat scandal tame, but being discovered by servants

Thinks His Clerk Is Insane.

died the next day.

Charles H. Howsley, a hatter, of 88 Sixth avenue, and William Cruger, his clerk, of 36 West Fifteenth street, called to see Justice big Colt's revolver was taken from the

Seventeen Rounds to a Draw. BALLSTON, Feb. 4.—Dennis Shaughnessy and Richard Carey, two Troy pugillists, fought seventeen rounds in a blacksmith shen here early this morning under London prize-ring rules, with bare fists, for $500 a side. Both were badly punished. The referee decided the fight a draw, About four hundred spectators from Troy, Albany and the Mohawk Valley were present. Opponents of Anti-Option.

hearing before the House Committee on Agri-culture, and Chicago and Minneapoils men-to d why the bill would not benefit the larm-ers and would hurt the men who are engaged in the business or supplying the demand for A stockily built, white-haired old man was held for trial by Recorder McDonough in Heboken te-day, charged with attempted burglary. He was caught trying to break must he residence of airs. Bruker, at 516 Hudson street, a little beiore induight has night. He said he was Michael Condon, a saitor.

Racing at Guttenburg daily, 2 p. M.

elub-house, S.F. M.

19.—National A. C.'s entertainment,
National A. Matter Starting Association championships, Thirstles Rink, Hobokes, 10.—Brooklyn therefore Club's monthly "stag," Housing tour cament of the Young Raugers A. C., of Marion, N. J.

isrooklyn Whedimen's "stag," I I—Suppresson A. C. hooling tournament, id.—Eduntainment of the little A. L.

Nat A. A. Sangua, 1. L.

Lot.—"Stag," b. I w. I. L. A. B. C.

Lot.—"Stag," b. I w. I. L. A. B. C.

SENT A WEAK REPORT.

The Police Deal Gently with Jim Sullivan's Dive.

Decision Reserved in This Case by the Excise Board.

Wulfers's Gorgeous Universe Dark and Deserted Last Night.

NEW YORK'S OUTLAWS.

IA Table Subject to Daily Change. In the Pentientiary BILLY M'GLORY, | AUGUST GUIDON

Indicted and Dires Closed JOHN KELLY.
PAUL M'CARTHY,
J. J M'ALEER,
CHARLES SMITH,
THOS. M'CORMICK.
AL DAVIS. Licenses Revoked.

ALFRED DAVIS. CHARLES SMITH JOHN WULFERS. Dive Annexes Closed. SIMON BUTTNER. JOHN J. MURPHY. FRANK STEVENSON. JAMES SULLIVAN.

Renewal of Concert License Refused. | LOUIS STAJER. " Concerts" Suspended. IGNATZ BUTTNER, sidered the case of Peter F. Mathews, who holds the liquor license for the dive at No. 78 Third avenue, known as Farley's Hotel, and were sent to the island. The proprietors. prietor.

the Fifth street station, was submitted in accordance with the Board's request. The report stated that Farley's Hotel was "frequented by a mixed class," but that Capt. McCullagh of his own knowledge could not say that the place was run otherwise than in an orderly manner.

Detective Blissert and Officer Leary, of Capt. McCullagh's squad, gave similar testimony. The Board reserved decision. Only Commissioners Koch and Fitzpatrick, being confined to his home by a severe attack of rheumatism.

It is peculiar, to say the least, that Capt. the true character of Farley's Hotel. The 21, for Dordrecht. rooms over the saloon have been rented for fulfilment of assignations made on an Evening World investigator solicited to go to one of these hough no concert license had been issued to the " botel," music was a feature of the entertainment provided for patrons in the room back of Mr. Jim Sullivan's bar, and ribaid songs were loudly sung there. There were tables in the place, and at these it was the habit of lewd women to sit and solicit and make immoral bargains.

the "Hole in the Wall," run by Mr. Carey Welch, who was a former partner of Mr. Jim Sullivan in the old Golden Horn, an infamous Horn was broken up by the police, and since Martin Schmidt was arrested in Jersey City | then Messrs. Welch and Sullivan have pre sided over separate establishments conducted

THE EVENING WORLD'S search-light exposed its infamy, and it has since remained closed, a tacit confession of guilt upon the part of those invested with the management of the

Farley's Potel must go the way of all dives against the den and those by whom it was Detective Gilkinson's Murderer Cuts

THE UNIVERSE SHUT UP TIGHT.

One of Capt. Ryan's Officers Had Carried Off Wulfers's License. Another keeper of a palatial saloon with a ce notorious dive namex has succumbed to e wave of reform set in motion by the EVENING WORLD and tightly closed his den. the "Universe," at 72 University place, was Excise. That license was taken away from him by one of Capt. Ryan's Mercer street p licemen yesterday afternoon and returned to the Board of Excise.

Last night Mr. Wulfers's "Universe" was dimly lighted and totally deserted. A solitary gas jet made the mirrored bar-room look

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The opronents of the by the disreputable women who used to fre-Anti-Option bill had the floor to-day, in the quent his back room and who, since they February.

McCarthy's and Mr. Alfred Davis's "Excise at the City Had this afternoon to be married testified. He related how Carthy and Mr. Alfred Davis's "Excise at the City Had this afternoon to be married testified. He related how Carthy are the Lordiard A. C., Jerser (2).

Athletic entertainment of the Crescent Boat Satisfactory of the Cresc nue : Mr. Carey Welch's " Hole in the Wall," nue; Mr. Carey Weich's "Hole in the Wall."

HALL'S "Briwsen THE ACTS" and Bravo, 10c.

HALF DIME, 5c., All-Tobacce Cigarettes are the Ward's return home. His testimony con"Slide." 157 Bleecker street; Mr. August on Brands made by Thos. Hall. Istate 1888. 1888. 1888. talled nothing further than has been put-"Slide." 157 Bleecker street; Mr. August Guidon's "French Hotel," 235 Sullivan street; Mr. Tom Gould's, Sixth avenue and

Mr. Scittm.r. although their ten, a resteaand on bail, has fled from the city. Mr. Davis has been indicted, but is in kiding to avoid arrest, and Mr. Frank Stevenson, whose place at 78 West Third street, is closed so far as th keeping under cover. Mr. Ignatz Buttner's "Orpheum Concer deserted last night because of the action of Mayor Grant in withholding his concert icense. Mr. Buttner's bar was open, but it is loubtful if the business done there was sufficient to pay the single barkeeper and the gas bill, to say nothing of the rest. Without its star attractions—disreputable women-the " Orpheum " is a financial failure. The dive-annexes of the saloons of Mr. Simon Buttner, 304 Bowery; Mr. John J. Murphy, 34 Bond street; Mr. "Honest" John Kelly, 520 Sixth avenue, and Mr. Tom Mc Cormick, 526 Sixth avenue, were still closed dive-annex is concerned, is still prudently

LEFT TO THE GRAND JURY.

Stajer and Gombossy Waive Examination in Police Court. Dive-Keepers Max Combossy and Louis Stater were arraigned before Justice Taintor in the Essex Market Police Court this aftersoon charged with keeping disorderly houses Counsellor Emanuel Friend, for Combossy vaived examination, and Lawyer Charle Steckler pursued the same course in Stater's ball each for the grand jury.

A complaint against Adolph Eisgraux keeping a disorderly house at Bowery (Gombossy's) was dismissed as it was shown that he was merely an employee of Gombossy's.

Disorderly Houses Raided. Two disorderly houses in Mulberry Bend were raided last night by the police of the Elizabeth street station. The proprietors and thirteen female inmates were arrested. In the Tombs Police Court to-day the women of which Mr. Jim Sullivan is the reputed pro- Michael Riccio and Tomaso Salvini, were held in $500 ball each for trial.

THE FLORIDA'S CREW PICKED UP.

They Were Taken on Board the British Steamship Victoria.

IRY ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1 steamer Britannic, Capt. Smith, from New York Jan. 27 for Liverpool, arrived at Queenstown to-day.

She reported that on Feb. 2 she signalled of the Board, were present, President Meakim the British steamer Victoria, Capt. Gray, from Philadelphia Jan. 10, for Hamburg. The latter vessel reported that she had on board the crew of the Norwegian bark McCullagh and his officers should not know Florida, Capt. Elletsen, from Pascagoula Dec.

The Piorida is the vessel whose crew. street or in the saloon itself, shortly after leaving Pascagoula mutinted, compelling the captain to put into Havana. Here the Norwegian Consul instructed the rooms by a female habitue of the dive. Al- captain to place his crew in Irons and procure a new set of men to work the vessel to pordrecht. This was done and the vessel proceeded.

The next heard of the Florida was that she was seen abandoned. Some of her calls were set, and she was slowly sailing along, a menace to navigation.
She had sustained some little almage, but those who saw her say it was not apparently such as would warrant her abandonment.

Cancel away from the school-house, and that he expected this disguise to prevent Ward from identifying him. He will be required to put on this false beard in court, and then ward Waterbury will be asked to identify

THE CONNECTICUT SENATE.

nsisting that Candidates Phelan and Alsop Were Elected.

IFT ASSOCIATED PRESS. HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 4.—The Senate, which met at 1 r. N., accepted the report of its Conference Committee on the resolution declaring the election of John J. Phelan as Secretary of State. It then laststed on its former action, declaring his election.

An abundance of political debate followed on both sides.

FITZSIMMONS A SUICIDE.

His Throat at New Orleans,

INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4 .- Frederick C. Fitzdimmons, alias Ambrose G. Budd and several | Ward Waterbury. other names, the escaped murderer of Detec-Tuesday, cut his throat with a penknife at 11

Prison. He will die.

He lett a letter reiterating his charge that Gilkinson's perjury secured the unjust conviction of his (Ptrsimmon's) wife on a charge of murder.

FLAMES AT FAR ROCKAWAY

One of Mrs. O'Leary's Boarders Nearly Euffocated. INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLS

this morning fire broke out in Mrs. Leary's ductors were a goatee on his cain. McCann senuichral, and another shed a faint gilmmer | boarding-house here. It originated from the

The WEATHER AND STORM SIG-Twenty-hird street, and Mr. Daniel Scrib- NALS of the United States Heather and even Judge Hoyt was moved.

Business of the Figure of the Charlet E. Waterbury's allege Garden," at 204 Bowery, was again dark and The Kidnappers of Little Ward Waterbury Safe in Jail at Greenwich.

Fully Recognized in Court by the Boy Who Was Stolen.

His Cousin Planned to Kill Him if the Ransom Came Not.

Charles Waterbury's Scheme to Get

IPPPCIAL TO THE EVENING WORKS GREENWICH, Conn., Feb. 4 .- Charles E. Waterbury is in custody here, having been arrested at his home late last night n a charge of being concerned in the kidnapping of little Ward Waterbury, his coustn. He was captured on the country road near his home in Stanwich, Count at about 10

He was walking along the road fully dressed with a bundle of clothes under his arm and a cocked revolver in his hand. Deputy Sheriff John Selleck selzed him and he made a movement as if to shoot.

tie gave in, however, and was taken to the He said he was on his way to surrender himself to the authorities. This is not believed, as everything pointed o the theory that he was trying to escape. Waterbury denied any share in the plot to kidnap the boy and said he would stand trial. The news of Waterbury's arrest spread like tidare. The people of this portion of Connecticut were all indignant over the kidnapping of Ward Waterbury and sympathized with the child's parents. Waterbury is reported to have made a con- were captured last night. lession, but the constables will not admit outherland had been arrested and had made the State line from Long Ridge. confession. This dejected him greatly. He spent a very restless night in the lock-up. To-day at 12 o'clock Charles E. Waterbury, outherland and McCann were arraigned be-conducted the prosecution. Little Ward Waterbury and his father and mother were in court. It will be remembered that Ward Waterbury said one of the men who abducted him wore a black beard. A false black beard was found in the house where little kept confined. It is believed that Charles E. Waterbury put on this beard when Ward was

Senator Seymour called up the resolution | Southerland, to go into it on condition that

It was decided to examine McCanufirst, and Southerland and Charles E. Waterbury were ransom, as was told in THE EVENING taken back to the lockup to await their turn.

THE HOUSE IS RECOGNIZED. Deputy Sheriff John Dayton, who arrested McCann and Southerland, told how the arrest

McCann was then called and told Justice Hoyt how Charles E. Waterbury had approached bfin and proposed the abduction of Waterbury told McCann that the boy must be kept in the house until the money was obtained. Waterbury said he intended to kill his cousin Ward if he didn't get that $6,000.

McCann retorted that it was bad enough to kidnap the boy, but he would not be a party to murder.

Which was written the hote to Farmer Waterbury serior in the house is the capters. About a unite from the house is the capters. About a unite from the house is the capter called "Devit's Ben," in which was found a handkerchief belonging to ward. It is believed that it was the kidnappers' intention. Buskent procured a stretcher at the station-bouse, and with the aid of other officers from well the body to the station shortly belonging.

McCann then denied that he was one of the men who kidnapped Ward. He said he gave up the job the night before, and told Charle Waterbury that he would have nothing to do with him. The authorities have evidence, however, to prove that McCann was one of the men. Ward Waterbury says that one of his ab-has always worn a goatee, but had just fin-bury had brought him the note demanding the country had brought him the country had been country had brought him the note demanding that had been country had brought him the note demanding that had been country had brought him the note demanding that had been country had brought him the note demanding that had been country had been country had brought him the note demanding that had been country had brought had been country had been country had brought him the note demanding that had been country had been to meet the kidnappers, and then described Fem. tained nothing further than has been put-Haned.

Charles E. Wateroury's elleged plan to murder the country ward in cold street pro-her side and Ward's father looked ugly. If Charles E. Waterbury had entered the court-room just then the people present might have forgotten that they were in a court of justice, and might have handled Charles E. Waterbury to a manne that he would never forget.

Before McCann's examination was concluded, little Ward Waterbury positively ideatified him as one of the men who had kidnapped him. The little fellow had been watching Mex ann steadfastly, while McCann sought to present only his full face to the child.

sought to present only his full face to the child.

But occasionally he torgot bimself and turned his head. Finally Ward exclaimed, "That's the man." That's the man." Judge Hoyt questioned Ward, and Ward said he recognized Mccanin by marks on his face and the slide of his head. That settled it for McCanin.

Meantime charles E. Waterbury had sent out to secure a lawyer. He sent first to R. J. Walsh, Secretary of State, but he peremptorily refused to come. Waterbury hen sent for lawyer James R. Mead, who respended. The feeling in the court-room had subsided by the time Waterbury came into the court-room, but the looks directed towards him were ugly.

room, but the looks directed towards alm were ugity.

Waterbury swaggered into the court-room, the seemed to think he had done a smart tuing in abducting his cousin, and tried to pass off the whole affair as something quite humorous. Lawyer Mead entered a demurrer, which Judge Hoyt promptly over-guied.

uled. Waterbury refused to plead. Southerland asked time to procure counsel, Judge Hoyt granted this and set down his hearing for Saturday morning, Charles E. Waterbury and McCann were both bound over for the Supreme Court, which sits at Bridgeport Feb. 16. They were remained to juil in default of $5,000 bonds wach.

remanded to jail in default of $5,000 bonds ward.
WHITE PLAINS, Feb. 4.—District Attorney Platt has issued subjemas for Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury and son Ward to appear before the Grand Jury Friday morning in order that indictments may be found against the abductors. If indictments are found as they undoubtedly will be an application will be made to the Governor of Connecticut for a transfer of the prisoners to Westchester County, New York. In Connecticut the extreme penalty for kitnapping is three years and a fine. In New York State it is fifteen years

A KIDNAPPER'S CONFESSION.

Charles Waterbury Said to Have Planned His Cousin's Abduction. BEDFORD, N. Y., Feb. 4 .- Two members of the gang which kidnapped eight-year-old tew minutes prior to his arrival. Ward Waterbury last Monday and attempted Farmer Charles P. Waterbury, of Long Ridge

They are John McCann and Samuel South-He was informed that McCann and joil at Greenwich, Conn., which is just across McCann has turned State's evidence, and Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Third has made a full confession of the whole plot avenue.

to steal the boy and conceal him for a few sum demanded, should have been paid over Mrs. Rube's employ: fore Judge Hoyt. District-Attorney Walsh to the conspirators. He implicates Charles E. Waterbury, Farmer Waterbury's nephew, who brought the letter of the kidnappers to his uncle's house, and told a cock-and-buil story about talked very fresh to me," said Zenner, and told a cock-and-buil story about talked very fresh to me," said Zenner, and then he asked me to give him some paper, a buggy, and Everett June, another young man who lives in the neighborhood.

M'CANN'S CONFESSION. According to his story, it is said, Nephew Vaterbury was the ringleader in the conpiracy, and arranged all the details of the hot to steal his liftle cousts. The other men, iccans says, only carried out his plans. envelope and put it in his pocket. Then he ANOTHER BOY TO BE STOLEN.

put on this false beard in court, and then ward Waterbury will be asked to identify him as one of the kidnappers.

Constable Fitzroy, who brought Waterbury to the jail, says that the prisoner made a confession to him on the way.

Fitzroy declares that Waterbury told him he stole the boy because he knew the lans.

Senator Seymour called up the resolution declaring the late Dr. Alsop's election as the three should share equally any money lieutenant-Governor.

An abundance of political debate followed that might be gotten out of it.

It was decided to examine McCann first, and frightened and sent little Ward back without for the constitution of the property of the constitution of the constitution of the property of the constitution of naking any further attempt to extort the ransom, as was told in THE EVENING WORLD

> Yesterday Ward led a party of searchers to the house where he had been imprisoned. He the access where he had been imprisoned. He recognized it as soon as he saw it.
>
> The house was vacant, but when it was searched several pieces of valuable evidence against the kidnappers were secured. A sheet or paper was found similar to the one on which was written the note to Farmer Water-

THE ANTI-PINKERTON BILL.

Passed by the Assembly at Albany To-Day.

FRY ARROCCATED PRESS ALBANY, Feb. 4 .- The Anti-Pinkerton IIII has been passed in the Assembly by 90 votes

Lithographer Carroll Assigns. Joseph W. Carroll, general lithographer, at Mccann's recital horrified the speciators, at 78 Duane street, made an assignment to-day to Arthur Smith, without preferences. because he attempted suicide this morning by vided the $5,000 was not paid, caused a cold shiver in the court-room. Mrs. Waterbury hugged Ward tightly by

PANE PANE

A Pretty Harlem Domestic Killed by a Jealous Lover.

Put His Arm Round Her Neck, Sent a Ball Through Her Brain.

The Murderer at Large, and Is Thought to Have Killed Himself.

Hartem people's chief topic of discussion to-day is the cruel murder of pretty Maggie Weissenmulier, a petite, brown-eyed servant girl of twenty years, by her jealousy-maddened lover, Frederick Zenner, twenty-two years old, who is still at liberty.

The tragedy occurred in the front areaway of the fine three-story brown-stone house 24 East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, a tew minutes after 11 o'clock last night. Maggie, for the past six months, was em ployed th re as a chambermald by Mrs.

Minns Ruhe, the occupant, and Zenner called upon her regularly and frequently until about two or three weeks ago, when the pair quarrelled and the girl forbade Zenner to visit her any more. Zenner is a baker by trade, but not a steady worker. For that reason Maggie occasionally chided him, but her remonstrances did not spur him to industry, and she finally told him that he must not call upon her.

Maggie's fellow-servants in Mrs. Ruhe's house say that the couple were engaged to be married, and that they knew each other in Germany, whence they came to this country everal years ago.

Last Saturday night Zenner called on Maggte and they had a quarrel. Zenner scolded her for her intention to discard him, and harshly accused her of loving some other fellow. Last night Zenner again called, but Maggie

He hurried down One Hundred and Twentyextort $60,000 ransom from his father, sixth street and overtook her near Third armer Charles P. Waterbury, of Long Ridge, avenue. Together they waiked to the corner of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Third avenue, where once more words of erland, both of whom are now lodged in the anger passed between them. Maggie refused juit at Greenwich, Conn., which is just across to permit Zenner to accompany her any further, and she left him on the corner of One days, until the ransom or some part of the story of Nada Lankanau, also a servant in

"It was about an hour after Zenner first called here last night when he returned and "It took him an hour to finish the letter, went out and he walked up and down the street in front of the house for two hours. "At 11 o'clock Maggie resurned to the house and had just stepped from the side-walk into the areaway to come in by the hurt. I opened the door and saw her lying "Zenner was running down One Hundred ple had gathered around Maggie. "She was unconscious, and then a policeman came along and took charge of the case." the One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street

Coroner Schultze viewed the body at 1 sclock this morning and gave a permit today to Undertaker Karl to remove the body

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The condition of Senator rower is reported to be greatly improved to-day. Tried to Die, but Failed.

John Dobbins, of 174 West street, is in 170 from Corline, who was backed as from 10 to 1 to 3 to 1. Chambers Street Hospital to-day, a prisoner,

Youngdesmylie's" Acme! | tecricePelleta

Two Bills to Be Introduced at Trenton on Monday Next.

TO AMEND THE CRIMES ACT.

Anderson Is Acquitted - Delong Signs with Corrigan.

As was stated in this column last evening the race bills are ready for presentation to the New Jersey Legislature, and Willard T. Parker, the Republican member from Monmouth County has them in his possession. The bills were drawn at the order of the Monmouth Park Association and paid for by that body. There are only two bills, instead of three, as at first stated.
One bill provides that the Boards of Freeholders shall have power to license race tracks. Each license shall be good for a term had left the house for an evening's walk a of five years, and the holders shall pay into the County treasury 5 per cent. of the gross receipts of the track. The other bill legalizes tracks by repealing that section of the Crimes act which renders gambling an indictable offense under the head of disorderly houses. The third bill which was to have been introduced included the features of the two mentioned with a thirty-day restriction clause in it. This has been withdrawn, however, for > Monday night if nothing unexpected happens All of the tracks save Guttenburg are said to lavor the bills. Just how the Hudson County Jockey Club stands on the question is already well known. Only two days ago Dennis McLaughlin declared that he would bet $10,000 that no race bill would be passed. It is said that unless the Board of Cootrol rescinds its resolutions against Guttenburg > probably good and sufficient reasons. The two bills first mentioned will be introduced the managers of the latter track will do and after he was through he placed it in the all in their power to defeat the bill. believe that the Board of Control passed the offending resolutions to help Monmouth Park force the hill toptrack into using its innu-ence in favor of a bill. The agreement which was reached a new weeks ago had this con-dition as its basis.

dession to him on the way.

Fitzroy declares that Waterbury told him he stole the boy because he knew the lad's father "had lots of money," which he felt belonged rightfully to him. He was tired of living and wanted to go to New York and open adive.

He had coheocted the whole scheme himself, and induced the others, McCann and Southerland, to go into it on condition that the three should share equally any money that might be gotten out of it.

It was decided to examine McCann and care in the conspirators found what a hear and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception.

It was decided to examine McCann and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and cry had been stirred out in its inception.

It was decided to examine McCann and cry had been stirred out in its inception, and the three should share equally any money that the character is a continuous and of the character are and position. The members of the Board have repeatedly stated that ther.

He demanded that she promise to marry imm, and when the poor girl refused he caught her.

He demanded that she promise to marry imm, and when the poor girl refused he caught her.

He demanded that she promise to marry imm, and when the poor girl refused her.

He demanded that she promise to marry imm, and when the poor girl refus dition as its basis.

Jockey Delong has signed to, ride for Ed Corrigan during the coming season.

John Hannigan & Co., of Latonia, has pur-chased from E. F. Clay the four-year-old colt frueneme, by Billet, dam Virgie D. Price not mentioned. Judge Burke thought that Jockey English did not try for third place as hard as he might have done yesterday. He called the boy into the stand and sent for his employer. Mr. Keily said inta the believed that English had done his best and the matter was dismissed.

"Spider "Anderson, the jockey, was tried at Cannoen, N.J., yesterday for the murder of William Robinson, a colored man. The pair had a row in a saloon and Anderson shot Robinson. He claimed he did it in self-detense, and the jury returned a verdict of not guitty.

day to Undertaker Karl to remove the body to the home of the girl's parents on one Hundred and Eigateeuth street, between Lenox and Fifth avenues.

Her rather is a peddier of groceries, and lives in a small frame house, midway in the block. The body was taken there at 9.40 this forenoon.

Directly after the case was reported to the station-house belectives Mott and Price were detailed to hunt down the murderer.

The racing at Guttenburg yesterday was bookmakers, Five invortes out of six won. The three bookmakers doing business on the discussive races and no better, for four ravortes won at the South Jersey track. The first race at Guttenburg yesterday was concurred to the station-house belectives Mott and Price were detailed to hunt down the murderer.

positional and another such a faint glimmer cover the groups back room, no longer the processor back room, and processor back room and the groups of the processor back room, and processor back room and the said a show. According to the following the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a show the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said a strong room to the processor back room and the said and the control of the strong room to the processor back room and the said and the processor back room and the said and the committee when the processor and the said and the committee of the said and the committee of the processor and the said and the committee of the processor and the said and the committee of the processor and the said and the committee of the processor and the said and the committee of the processor and the said and th

Toans won his race in a gallop, and so did Climax. In the fifth race Mr. Carr dropped the mag to a beautyut stort, and Mr. Caldwell could not have done better. The sixth race

THE WORLD ALMANAC, 1892.

all News Deuters and Stationers.